Pleistocene-era soils. A blend of phyllite soils on schistous colluvium, together with Oligocene-era, medium clay-limestone soils. Hand-harvested with careful sorting, followed by extended maceration with manual punch-downs. Aged for 12 months in oak and terracotta amphora.

TASTING NOTES

Garnet color with ruby highlights. A powerful nose of black fruit with spicy notes. A powerful yet supple palate, with silky tannins and a lovely length.

FOOD PAIRINGS

Perfect with thyme-roasted lamb chops.
